THE CARELESS MAN

Isn't particular what goes into the coal hole. He pays the penalty for going about without keeping his eyes open.
Any fellow with half an eye can see that our "Ideal" coal is all right. It is clean, free from dirt and slate; burns freely, but is lasting. It is carefully screened and you get a full ton every time.
Don't have to fuss and fume. Just strike a match and throw it into the kindling—and the trick is done. "Ideal" coal catches fire, when you want a fire. Makes good fuel for any kind of cooking range or stove that burns coal.
We sell wood, too.
"Ideal" coal 12 cents per bushel. Wood $5.00 per cord.
If you want the very best service and coal that is coal buy "Ideal" from

LABOR DAY

Jacksonville Unions Still Undecided Where They Will Celebrate.

Arthur Kessler, George J. Chambers and Frank Correa will go to Decatur this morning to meet with the Labor day committee of that city, as Decatur is very desirous that Jacksonville celebrate there. A committee composed of W. H. Brainer, Abe Wood and W. J. Wood will go to Peoria on a like mission. The report of these committees will be used in determining where Jacksonville will celebrate Labor day this year.

OIL BURNER COMPANY.

The canvass for the stock of the Raymond Oil Burner company is progressing nicely for such extreme weather conditions. The committee finds quite a number though who wish to see the burners in actual operation, and they have accordingly decided to open permanent headquarters, and make a display of their apparatus. A few barrels of Beaumont crude oil have been ordered and Mr. Raymond went to St. Louis Thursday and will return to day with some necessary equipment. Notice of location of the offices will be announced at an early date.

ATTENTION, EPWORTH LEAGUERS.

For the benefit and accommodation of the JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT EPWORTH LEAGUERS and their friends, a special car will be placed in train 12 leaving Jacksonville 6 a. m., Wednesday, July 15, connecting at Bloomington with a special train; from which point they will run through via Chicago and the Wabash, reaching Detroit at 9 p. m., same date. President Hartwick will be here to start with the car and render all assistance possible. Remember there will be no change of cars if you travel "THE ONLY WAY." Round trip only $12.10. O. L. Hill, Agt.

VERY REMARKABLE CURE OF DIARRHOEA.

"About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller, of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. It was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians, prescriptions and treatments without avail. Finally we moved to Morgan county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, with a testimonial of a case who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly believe that I was well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that was exactly the case. After a few days' use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, I was cured. I am now as well as ever." For sale by all druggists.

ATTORNEY IN MURDER CASE

Judge Barnes will leave to day for Wyoming to defend P. D. Shephardson.

Judge Charles A. Barnes will leave to day for Cheyenne, Wyo., to defend P. D. Shephardson, who is indicted there on the charge of murder. This young man is a son of Wm. Shephardson, of near Waverly, who will also attend the trial. They will be gone about a week. The boy formerly lived in this county, where he stood well, and his father is one of our best citizens. The young man has been out west working for a railroad company and got into an altercation of some kind, resulting in the killing. It is hoped that it can be shown that the affair was not as serious as charged.

PROPOSALS FOR COAL.

Sealed proposals will be received by the trustees of the Illinois Central Hospital for the insane, up to 11 a. m., July 25, 1903, for furnishing all the bituminous coal to be used in said hospital from the first day of August, 1903, to the 31st day of July, 1904, inclusive. Proposals shall be for run of mine. Said coal to be delivered in coal houses of said hospital at such times and in such quantities as may be required by the superintendent of said hospital. The coal to be inspected by said superintendent, weighed on the hospital scales, and such weights to be considered correct in making settlement. The right is reserved to the said superintendent to reject any coal that fails in his judgment to meet the requirements as to quality, and such rejected coal shall not be paid for.

Proposals must specify the price per ton (2,000 pounds); must be sealed and endorsed "Proposals for Coal," and directed to the superintendent of the hospital. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check of $100 as a guarantee that the contract will be accepted by the bidder if awarded. The successful bidder will be required to furnish a bond with approved securities in the sum of $2,000 for the faithful performance of the contract.

The trustees reserve the right to reject any and all bids, and to re-advertise for bids at their option.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS

Go to Detroit This Week—Route for Central Illinois Delegates.

Circulars are out giving the complete details of the arrangements of the trip of the central Illinois members of the Epworth league to the sixth international convention, to be held at Detroit. The Journal has already mentioned this jaunt, which will be one of the largest patronized of any religious excursion run of late years. The leaguers are to go over the C. & A. and the Wabash from Bloomington to Detroit. Arrangements have been made to run a special through train from Bloomington, leaving at 9 a. m., Wednesday, July 15, and running through to Detroit without change, arriving at Detroit at 9 o'clock p. m.

Cars will be placed on Chicago & Alton train No. 12, leaving Roodhouse, July 15, at 5:20 a. m., Jacksonville at 6 a. m., Ashland at 6:33 a. m., Petersburg at 6:58 a. m., Mason City at 7:35 a. m., San Jose at 7:56 a. m., Delavan at 8:05 a. m., and Hopdale at 8:18 a. m.; also making all intermediate stops, arriving at Bloomington at 8:55 a. m.

The delegation from the south will use train No. 12 on same date, leaving Springfield at 6:55 a. m., Williamsburg at 7:20 a. m., Lincoln at 7:55 a. m., Atlanta at 8:19 a. m., and McLean at 8:30 a. m., stopping at all intermediate stations for passengers, and arriving at Bloomington at 8:55 a. m.

Both of these delegations will be consolidated at Bloomington, together with the delegation at this place, and run through as a special fast train of Epworth leaguers and their friends. Stops will also be made at stations north of Bloomington, as follows: Normal, 9:05 a. m.; Lexington, 9:35 a. m.; Chenoa, 9:51 a. m.; Pontiac, 10:11 a. m.; Dwight, 10:50 a. m.

The special will be joined at Dwight by the Peoria delegation and proceed to Joliet, which point it will leave at 12 noon, arriving at Chicago at 1:15 p. m., leaving Chicago over the Wabash at 2 p. m., making no further stops until arriving at Detroit at 9 p. m.

Conference and district officers of the Epworth league, in connection with officials of the Chicago & Alton and Wabash railroads, will accompany the excursion and personally look after the comfort of all passengers on this special train. Everything will be done conducive to the comfort and pleasure of those desiring to visit the beautiful city of Detroit.

The conference and district officers have arranged to hold social sessions enroute.

The rate arranged is one fare for the round trip from all stations: Alton, $12.75; Springfield, 11.30; Lincoln, $10.90; Roodhouse, $12.75; Jacksonville, $12.10; San Jose, $11.10; Bloomington, $10; Pontiac, $9.50; Dwight, $9; Joliet, $7.05.

Illinois headquarters will be in the Central M. E. church, corner Woodward avenue and Adams street.

The delegation will be met at Detroit by the entertainment committee, and will be assigned to places upon arrival. Rates, $1 per day and upward.

Special rates have been granted for side trips to points of interest both by rail and boat. No city presents side trips of more interest than Detroit. The list includes Niagara Falls, Put-in-Bay, Mt. Clemens and many other resorts.

When you want to smoke up always smoke an "Old Smoker."

BRONCHITIS FOR TWENTY YEARS.

Mrs. Minerva Smith, of Danville, Ill., writes: "I had bronchitis for twenty years and never got relief until I used Foley's Honey and Tar, which is a sure cure." J. A. Obermeyer, druggist.

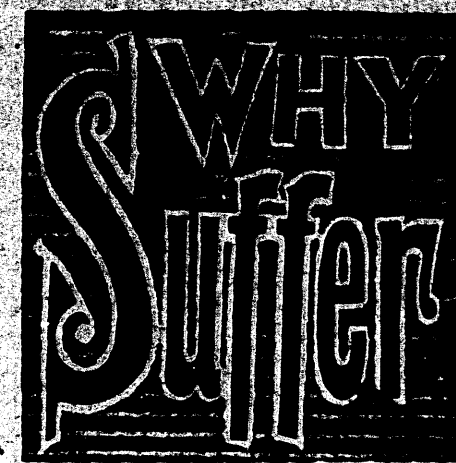

CASE OF MRS. ROBERTS.

Odd Fellows all over the state have been greatly interested in the case of Mrs. Sarah J. Roberts, of Mattoon, who, coming from Lexington with her husband, became an inmate of the home for aged members of the order. After her husband's death Mrs. Roberts was compelled to leave the home. The following from the Bloomington Pantagraph tells of the case and the part which C. S. Harris, of Galesburg, grand master of Illinois Odd Fellows, took in the matter:

"Since the hearing at Mattoon by Charles S. Harris, grand master of Illinois Odd Fellows, and others of the Sarah J. Roberts case, it has been supposed that the whole controversy over whether or not Mrs. Roberts should have been kept in the home would be brought before the grand lodge at the next meeting. It is stated now that it will not come before the grand lodge unless individual members of Mattoon lodge or individual Odd Fellows in Mattoon take steps to that end."

"Mattoon lodge No. 300, which took up and passed the case of Mrs. Roberts, the former Lexington woman, has issued an appeal to the grand master and the forces of Illinois for action in that matter and expressing satisfaction with the action of the grand master."

SUIT AGAINST ROAD.

James D. Hopkins has filed in the Sangamon circuit court against the Pawnee Railroad company to recover damages in the sum of $10,000, for personal injuries suffered by jumping through the window of a train on the defendant's line at the Sugar creek bridge, between Pawnee and Auburn. The plaintiff was sitting in the coach, when, he says, the conductor came through and terrorized the passengers by shouting: "Jump for your lives—the bridge is on fire!" A wild rush was made for the front and rear end of the coaches by the passengers. Hopkins saw no way of escape except through a window and he dived through this. His body struck against a pile of ties at the side of the track, and in addition to painful bruises he suffered a compound fracture of the leg.

The bridge had not burned sufficiently to prevent the train from passing over it safely. Hopkins says the company was negligent in allowing the wooden structure to become so dry that a spark from an engine would set it afire.

THE ISLAND OF SAN DOMINGO

IN WEST INDIES RICH IN MINERAL RESOURCES

John M. Kreider Tells of His Recent Trip in Interest of Petroleum and Mining Export Company.

John M. Kreider, of the firm of Lancaster & Kreider, brokers of St. Louis, is spending a few days in the city at the home of his parents, Col. and Mrs. E. C. Kreider, on West State street. Mr. Kreider has recently returned from a business trip to the island of Santo Domingo in the interest of the West India Petroleum Mining and Export company, in which concern he is a stockholder. This company has secured a 99-year concession from the government of Santo Domingo 13.62 miles square. Within this tract they have recently bought outright a section 9x7 miles, of which they have absolute control. There are no mining laws in Santo Domingo and Mr. Kreider went to the island for the purpose of complying with certain conditions that were made when the grant was secured and also to superintend the beginning of operations on the company's land, which was commenced June 9.

Mr. Kreider talks very interestingly of the country he has recently visited and feels that the holdings of the company in the island are far above anticipations and that the prospects for development are exceedingly bright.

There are no laws that provide for the protection of staked claims as in this country and even the owner of land who discovers minerals on his property has not the right to mine for the same without securing permission from the government authorities.

The eighteen mile tract is located in the province of Azua de Compostella, this province being the home of the great Mexican explorer, Cortez, and the records show that he was once a notary public in the province. The population of the town of Azua numbers 3,000 people and they depend upon the raising of coffee, sugar, tobacco and kindred products as a means of livelihood. The company's property is about three miles distant from the town and from the investigations that have been made is remarkably rich in mineral resources. The land is six miles from the sea coast and 350 feet above the sea level. The oil fields are situated in a basin between the mountains and pit mining is the system used in bringing it to the surface. The soil is of cretaceous formation, sand and gravel, and in the oil localities rises to within a foot of the surface and seeps through the soil. As one approaches one of these localities the gurgling of the boiling oil, like a great clodron, is plainly heard and a slight excavation reveals the oil in its seething condition.

While Mr. Kreider was there one of these excavations was made and a pit ten feet square was dug and kodak pictures taken by E. C. Kreider, Jr., give a very clear view of the processes employed in developing one of these pits. The oil is bailed out of the pits and when once emptied will fill again in eighteen hours, and it is a theory of some that if pumps were installed the flow of oil would be continuous. The capacity of one of these pits is over 300 barrels of oil a day.

Three hundred yards from the pit described is a bare spot with no vegetation for a wide radius and here sulphur and iron formations are quite evident. A pit four or five feet deep near the edge of this bare spot has been dug by some one and poles laid across in haphazard fashion. Owls are frequently found lying dead in the bottom of the pit and the theory is that they light upon the poles and the gas fumes from the pit asphyxiate them, and they are overcome while ignorant of their danger. A splendidly developed picture of Mr. Kreider holding one of these dead owls in his hand in company with several others of his party, was taken by his brother and is of interest. The top formation here is sulphur and below at a shallow depth is an asphalt formation, called superficial asphalt. There is also found soil with sulphur and iron in combination. Mr. Kreider has interesting specimens of all these substances with him and they certainly indicate that the island is full of mineral products.

There is some timber growth on the land owned by the West India company and Mr. Kreider brought with him samples of mahogany, satin wood, zapatera, a last wood, corresponding to our hickory and rustic or dye wood. The supply of the latter is limitless and is of rapid growth. These samples were cut by Mr. Kreider as he passed along the roadways which are narrow and very much worn and he was informed that within the timber land hauled with and about trees are found.

The greatest of the danger of this portion of the island is remarked as the malarial fever and the prevalence of yellow fever and the danger of cholera.

And for some inexplicable reason irrigation is necessary, as it has been known not to rain for a period of five years.

The placer mining prospect seems to be good, although very little experiment along this line has been attempted. Some years ago the land in question was visited by some Belgian capitalists, who attempted to develop it without securing any permits or authority of any kind from the government and as a result their operations were short lived. The island is of interest to the student of history, as here is found the ruins of the first educational institution that was ever built in the western hemisphere. It was a monastery built in 1502 and many houses in San Domingo have been built out of stone taken from it. From a picture shown the top of trees are seen growing above the walls on the inside, a curious circumstance indeed. During his absence Mr. Kreider had rooms in a building now used for a hotel that was 350 years old.

The natives of the island claim that the remains of Christopher Columbus are still on the island and that the remains that were removed to Havana by the Spaniards were those of a brother of the discoverer and that the identification stones had been changed purposely by the Santo Dominicans in anticipation of such an event. During recent years in making some excavations a workman discovered a shallow place, through which his pick went with apparent ease. Upon examination it is claimed that records were found corroborative of the above story, stating that the headstones had been changed and that here were deposited the remains of the great Columbus. The bones here found were accordingly gathered into an appropriate receptacle and so great was the faith of the Santo Dominicans in the discovery that was made that a magnificent monument has been erected and the receptacle placed in a massive mausoleum.

Capt. John Hardy, the United States consul, is the resident manager of the company and the work in the oil fields is superintended by E. C. Kreider, Jr. Captain Hardy has spent twenty-seven years on the island and is thoroughly familiar with all its topography. The province is ideally located with regard to shipping facilities and the biggest ships can approach within an eighth of a mile of the shore.

The island is 1,400 miles due south from New York city. The head of the republic is Francisco Baez and he directs the interests of 70,000 people. It should be borne in mind that the Santo Dominican government is composed of White Haiti and Black Haiti and that the province described is White Haiti.

About a dozen prominent local capitalists and bankers are interested in the West India company and it is estimated that $30,000 will be a sufficient sum to develop the property to make it a paying proposition. It is certainly hoped that the gentlemen interested will be abundantly successful in their enterprise.

Another new lot of duck hats will be in Tuesday at Horman's.

OPPOSE TO UNION.

Detroit, July 11.—Dr. Joseph F. Berry, general secretary of the Epworth league, in an interview to night opposed the proposed amalgamation of the Christian Endeavor, Epworth league and Baptist Young People's union. He believes in Christian unity, but not organic union. Declares union is an utter impossibility.

CONTRACT FOR PEORIA ASYLUM

Will Cause Suit in United States Court—Injunctions to be Asked.

Springfield, July 11.—Eight hundred members of the First infantry of Chicago arrived in Springfield this morning without incident at 4:30 o'clock and proceeded immediately to Camp Lincoln, where at 5 o'clock the annual tour of duty commenced with all military regulation.

The opening week of the encampment is next in interest in Springfield to the encampment weeks of the local organizations. It is the "dandy" first which occupies the tented city now and its excellent band and the natty appearance of the command in white duck breeches will attract thousands of people to the parade to morrow evening at 6:50 o'clock.

There will be no church service for the regiment Sunday. The command has come to camp without a chaplain. A sacred concert will replace the usual religious ceremony. Professor Hostrawser, director of the regimental band has brought forty musicians into camp in addition to the forty field musicians of the regiment.

EXPLAINS HIS POSITION

Indianapolis, July 11.—Governor Darrin in a letter to Judge Hesch of Evansville, to day explaining his position in declining to authorize the holding of troops at Evansville until after the trial of the case. Gov. Brown reiterates the view of the former statement of the case. The case is now in the hands of the court and the governor is not in a position to interfere with the trial.

INSPECT J. & ST. L. ROAD

Burlington Officials Think $300,000 Well Spent—Gravel for Roadbed

A special train bearing C. B. & Q. officials arrived in the city Saturday morning from Beardstown. In the company were Howard Elliott, second vice president; F. A. Delano, general manager; F. C. Rice, superintendent; J. D. Besler, assistant to second vice president; H. D. Judson, superintendent Illinois lines, and L. W. Berry, superintendent of St. Louis division. They were joined here by General Manager W. E. Crane and Chief Engineer B. F. Bond, of the J. & St. L. From this point they went over the entire J. & St. L. system. Between Tamalco and Keysport a stop was made and an examination made of the work that has been done at the gravel pit. The officials were satisfied from their inspection of the various test wells that have been made that sufficient gravel exists in the locality to warrant putting in a siding and as soon as this is done it is the intention to gravel ballast the entire J. & St. L. system at an expense of $200,000. During the last ten months $300,000 has been spent in improvements along the road and when Mr. Elliott and the party reached Centralia he expressed himself as very much pleased with the manner in which the work has been done under the direction of Mr. Crane. The company has spent money freely for improvements, but Mr. Elliott is well satisfied with the results, and thinks the road has something to show for the expenditure.

BAPTIST YOUNG PEOPLE.

Atlanta, July 11.—A feature of to day's session of the Baptist Young People's union was the speech of Samuel D. McKinney, of Alton, who spoke for union of the north and south and declared it was "time for northern people to stop putting Uncle Tom's Cabin before the eyes of the children. We have had enough of Uncle Tom's Cabin," declared McKinney, and the people of the north should not give it to their children to read, engendering the feeling of bitterness. We need to cease giving an ear to prattle against the south and to unite in praising the name of Lincoln, Lee, Grant and Jackson.
